The OU Mascot is Petey the Stormy Petrel. Stormy petrels are tough seabirds known for flying low to the ocean, even crashing through waves, to look for food. The stormy petrel is also said to be the inspiration for Oglethorpe's motto: Nescit Cedere, translated as "He/She does not know how to give up."

Hermance Stadium, which now hosts our baseball games, was once a football venue. Completed in 1920, its front gates feature the scores of our historical wins against Georgia and Georgia Tech.

Dorough Field House, home to the basketball and volleyball teams, features a unique "blacktop" surface on its Pinholster Court. The new look was revealed in November 2015.
